

others, of the city of Baltimore, praying the passage of a law relating to distress for rent; referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Also the petition of James L. Hawkins, Nathaniel F. Williams and James B. Ringgold, praying further compensation for services rendered, as commissioners of lotteries; referred to the committee on ways and means.

Also the petition of Isaac Phillips, and others, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying the opening and extension of Pine street in the said city; referred to Messrs. Stricker, Tyson and Nicholson.

And the petition of Isaac Phillips, and others, of the city of Baltimore, praying that Fayette street, in said city, may be regraded between Pea and Cove streets; referred to Messrs. Stricker, Tyson and Nicholson.

By Mr. Tyson, the petition of Sarah Smith, of the city of Baltimore, the widow of the late Nathaniel Smith, who was an officer during the revolutionary war, praying further relief and remuneration in consideration of his military services in defence and maintenance of his country's rights and liberties; referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

By Mr. Beall, the petition of Anne Hollyoak, of the city of Annapolis, praying to be allowed the half pay of a private soldier, in consideration of the military services of her deceased husband, who was a soldier of the revolutionary war, and attached to the Maryland line; which was also referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

By Mr. Buchanan, the memorial of sundry inhabitants of Baltimore county, praying the passage of a law to provide means to put the state system of public education into speedy operation; referred to the committee on public instruction.

And the petitions of Francis X. Gindhart, and Sarah Gindhart, his wife, of the city of Baltimore, each praying for a divorce; which were severally referred to the committee on divorces.

By Mr. John W. Thorpe, a petition from sundry inhabitants of Harford county, praying that the law incorporating a company to build a bridge over the river Susquehanna at Havre-de-Grace, may be repealed; referred to the same committee, to whom has heretofore been referred similar petitions.

By Mr. Hope, the petition of Christopher Wilson, of Harford county, praying relief, and compensation for his services therein mentioned, referred to Messrs. Hope, Sutton and Norris. And